

Postbox Solutions Ltd

Commercial Mailbox Frame Options

|   | article number | equipment  | materials  | remarks  |
|---|----------------|--|--|--|
|    | RI 220 H       | Lining made of aluminium sheet with rounded edges made of aluminium sections, corners made of Zamak, section 29 mm thick | powder-coated or anodised aluminium                            | classical round-edge lining, also available with rain guard                                |
|    | RI 240 H       | lining with tight sheets   | powder-coated or anodised aluminium or brushed stainless steel | lining bent as a hood in one piece   |
|    | RI 241 H       | lining with tight sheets, front overhanging roof with punched out rain edge  | powder-coated or anodised aluminium or brushed stainless steel | lining bent as a hood in one piece, with a built-in rain edge                              |
|   | RI 243 H       | three-part vaulted lining also with lining for columns   | powder-coated or anodised aluminium                            | max. dimensions of the mailbox unit 360 x 400 mm (H x w), ideal for 1- and 2-family houses |
|  | RI 244 H       | three-part lining with tight aluminium sheets, front overhanging roof  | powder-coated or anodised aluminium                            |  |
|  | RI 245 H       | three-part, tight lining with roof overhanging on the front and rear   | powder-coated or anodised aluminium                            | the overhanging roof also functions as water-proofing                                      |
|  | RI 290 H       | lining made of aluminium sheet with rounded edges made of aluminium sections, corners made of Zamak, section thick 57 mm | powder-coated or anodised aluminium                            | large round-edge lining, also available with rain guard                                    |

Note

You will need an RI 205 rear wall for all self-supporting mailbox systems if mail is to be retrieved from the front. An additional tie-bar is installed with mailbox systems more than 1850 mm wide.

www.postboxsolutions.co.uk

Telephone: 0844 561 6726